MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF SECURITY, CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Subject: Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) Accesses for General Accounting Office (GAO) Personnel

In the near future, the General Accounting Office intends to conduct a review of the protection of national security information by contractors. The review will be conducted by Mr. Irving T. Boker who will be assisted by Mr. James Reid and Mr. James Moses. The scope of the inquiry will be limited to adequacy of protection measures and costs of that protection. It will involve coverage of some special access programs to include some that fall within the SCI category.

The GAO personnel should require no access to substantive information of any program but will need access to SCI facilities and personnel who manage and administer them.

In response to Mr. Boker's request, representatives of the Department of Defense have agreed to cooperate with the GAO in this review.

It is requested that you provide this information to the Office of Legislative Counsel, CIA, as necessary.
